What was the most beneficial part of the conference?

- To help me figure out what colleges and courses I want to do for the rest of high school and if I go or plan to go to a 4 year college
- the information of the collge
- Talk on college and scholarships that I can earn.
- learning about the naviance
- How she explain and answer everything so well. i also got to get out of class so that was nice.
- The most beneficial part was the resources i was told about to help me achieve academic success.

The most beneficial part was when I found out what my GPA was and what colleges would better benefit my plan.

Showing me and guiding me through the processes of how to get pass and get the credits i need to graduate.

Getting all of the information about the sites and statistics

The most beneficial part of the conference was learning where I stand with my GPA.

to get to know how im doing in school and to here what classes i need to take for my senior year and what i need to do, to get into some of the schools i would like to go too

Learning the needs for my student

The whole thing.

The most beneficial part was going over the scholarships I can get if I keep up my grades.

when there were team work and understanding

working together

learning new information and future classes being explained.

The most beneficial part is about how I need to step up my grades

She helped give me a good start for what I need to do now to prepare me for college

I believe the most beneficial part of the conference was to find a website that will help me find a good college to go to and to help me with financial aid.

when my counselor told me I can graduate on time If I pass all my classes.

The wealth of knowledge and information is wondeeful and will definitely assist with college planning.

The part where we talked about scholarships and my career plan.

I was given a lot of information about things my school offered that I was unaware about.

I was able to learn about the requirements for certain in-state scholarships as well as the schools that offer extra benefits for receiving the scholarship.

all of it Thank Amoako

Picking my classes for next year and also discovering the Naviance site.

Learning the different types of colleges to choose from and the different opportunities they offer.

That my counselor help me find the classes that i really need to major in order to go further.

Telling me my GPA, what classes I need to take to boost it, Sat and ACT waivers and college information.

Most beneficial part of the conference was everything giving to me.All the websites pertaining to scholarships and schools. The conference really help think more about my future.

The most benefical part of the conference was knowing that, I have some one there to guide me in the right path and now I know what steps I need to take in order to achieve and master my goals

The websites she gave me to look more into college and the military.

Discussing my classes for my senior year.

All of the links that was given to me.

To know where i can go to look further into colleges

The links to Naviance. It's definitely going to help me find out what college i need to look at.

The walk-through of the naviance site

I was provided with all the information I need to know in order to persue my college career and suceed in college.

finding out what college i want to got to

Everything

The counselor sitting down with us going over everything step by step.

Learning about things that I have to do in order to achieve this goal and what other colleges I can attend

Setting up online classes for the spring and the summer.

The conference was really informative. I was able to learn all that I needed to know in order to prepare myself for my senior year and college.

All was bebeficial. The information available to our young students surpass anything I can imagine. I can't wait to join my daughter in her next adventure.

Being introduced to the different programs that could further my child's academic success.

To learn class rank

The thing about how many credits I need

Knowing what scholarships my daughter is able to recieve.

Learning about all of the scholarships and how I could improve junior year/

Being able to ask questions and receive information for my child to excel.

I was told what I needed to know and now i have the right mind set to get my GPA up as high as possible.

Knowing the different resources my school is providing me to make my future brighter.

Learning about all of the different websites that could help me get into a very good college

The most beneficial part of the conference was getting information on the colleges that I am interested in.

The best part was getting valuabe information on certain sites to find out about colleges.

The most beneficial part of this meeting was going over what calsses I need to take for my career path.

The ACT and SAT waivers, along with finding out more information about the teaching cadet program.

Seeing where i stand academically

My classes

Getting to known my GPA

Learning about sites I could use for later use

Learning how to navigate with sending college applications.

Helping me out with what I need to go to the colleges I want to attend.

Being able to see where I am at in my academics.

Asking questions and learning about the scholarships that are available to me.

Coming up with my schedule

Very thoroughly explained and important information was provided

All of the information was presented in a way that I can understand. If I can't, I could just ask again about it to fulfill my needs.

Looking at the Naviance Program and seeing that I can search for colleges that would help me further my career.

I think that everything went well and I have a good understanding of what position I am in in terms of graduation and my grades...also now I have access to materials that will allow me to know more about colleges in the area and my chances of getting into them..

I learned that most schools have deadline enrollment .

learning about websites and test dates. ensuring credit hours are completed.

Access to the college information website.

Transcript and creating my schedule

Learning about thing's I never even heard of or knew about . I actually found new ways to be organized , and to help me keep up with my work . I feel this made it easier to find out about more opportunities .

I was able to ask questions concerning my daughters education, they made sure i understood everything. i must say the staff at RNE rocks i will miss this school and the people. Dajah, loves it here and that makes a difference shes doing really well.

All of the additional resources given to me.

Course planning and discussion of academic benchmarks required for scholarships.

Access to the college information and scholarship data. Tool for helping find career path/compatibility.

Receiving advice on future plans.

She was very encouraging

The information that was provided.

There was a lot of information shared and I learned of many opportunities that I was not aware of. There was no time constraint for the meeting and Mrs. Amoako was very candid and optimistic about the upcoming year. She's very helpful.

I Got to know the things about my future and the steps needed to take for me to be a better student.

Dr. Huger really giving important information for future references. Telling us more about where i stand right now, and what colleges will most likely be interested in accepting me.

Where we went over schools and how I can find them easy.

Talking about the gpa and understanding more about the gpa and how it works , also the opportunities i have with the websites i have been given,

Parents, if you would like to receive scholarship and college information, please enter your email address below:

The materials presented during the conference will assist me (or my child) in achieving my post-secondary goals.

I was provided ample opportunity to ask questions during the Junior Conference.

Do you think that the "Family Connections" (Naviance Program) will assist you with your academic, college & career goals?

Do you plan to visit "Family Connections" (Naviance Program) for College & Career Planning and Scholarship Searches?

Following the Junior Conference, I feel comfortable contacting my School Counselor for further information.

How would you rate the overall Junior Conference experience?

What was the most beneficial part of the conference?

What suggestions do you have for improving the conference?
